

RUSSIAN LANGUAGE & CULTURE SUMMER SCHOOL

Are you a university student eager to improve your Russian language skills? Then join us for a two-week Summer School program at the Faculty of Arts, Charles University in Prague!

Our 60-hour program, taught by experienced educators, offers a comprehensive approach to practicing and expanding your knowledge of Russian, with a focus on conversational skills, grammar, and the knowledge of Russian culture. Our classes are taught at the A2 and B1 levels in two parallel groups, with a special program tailored to each group. Great importance is given to the development of communicative competence both in oral and written forms. The main teaching materials are modern original textbooks written by lecturers from the Department of East European Studies, as well as other books and sources, including authentic videos and mass media texts.

The program also includes an onsite orientation, welcome dinner, assistance in obtaining Charles University student ID card, and ongoing support via a 24/7 emergency phone, onsite staff and housing coordinator. Extracurricular activities will include a cooking workshop, optional tours of Old Town, Prague Castle, and various Prague neighborhoods, as well as a farewell dinner.

Don't miss this unique opportunity to elevate your Russian language skills in a supportive and dynamic environment.
